UNIQUE COMBINATION OF FEATURES FOR A CLEANER, SAFER COUNTERTOP

Multi-dimensional functionality makes Silestone Quartz a cleaner, safer surface for your home. Silestone offers built-in Microban antimicrobial product protection to inhibit the growth of microbes such as odor-causing bacteria, mold and mildew. While Microban protection does not protect users from foodborne illness and is not a substitute for normal cleaning practices, it does result in countertops that are easier to clean and keep clean. And with The National Sanitation Foundation's NSF 51 Certification and the GREENGUARD Environmental Institute's GREENGUARD Indoor Air Quality Certification, Silestone Quartz is a cleaner, safer surface for use in areas where food preparation could take place, while protecting the quality of your indoor air environment. This unique combination of attributes offered by Silestone Quartz make it the smart choice for all your surfacing needs.

A CLEANER, GREENER COUNTERTOP

Anyone can talk about respect for the environment. Cosentino's Silestone® lives it. In every step of production, from natural stone extraction to transportation to manufacturing to installation, we're committed to respect and protect our environment. We're constantly investing in new technologies that reduce emissions and maximize recycling. We devote significant resources to creating systems that ensure environmental sustainability. We've worked to become leaders in environmental responsibility. That means our products do more than meet industry requirements; they meet the expectations of a conscientious society.
